

Parkinson's Hospital Care

1 Million people in the U.S. living with PD

More than 300,000

people with Parkinson's disease receive hospital care in the U.S. each year, for planned or unplanned reasons

People with Parkinson's are hospitalized

1.5

 times more often than peers without PD

Patient Safety and Health Outcomes

When in the hospital,

3 out of 4

Parkinson's patients DO NOT receive their medications on time

Complications result in increased length of stay

Patient hospital length of stay can be up to 14 days longer than their peers without PD

28%

of patients with Parkinson's experience deterioration of motor symptoms

Readmissions

returned to the hospital or ER within one year

Discharge

in the U.S. were discharged to a facility

Mortality

in the U.S. died during their hospital stay

Parkinson's patients have worse disease severity and symptoms at discharge, compared to admission

Costs of Hospital Care

Hospital inpatient care for PD costs U.S. healthcare system

$7.19 billion annually

The Parkinson's Foundation is committed to improving health outcomes and safety for people with Parkinson's receiving hospital care.